The Qur'an: Language, Culture & Preservation

Chapters
1-3

Arabic: A Complete Musical Instrument

Arabic was divinely selected for its full use of the vocal tract and phonic patterns that connects sounds to meaning.

An Unbreakable Barrier Against Fragmentation

The Qur'a prevented Arabic from completely disintegrating into regional dialects. Keeping the classical language alive and readable for nearly 1500 years.

Foundations of a Universal Civilisation

Islamic civilisation is grounded in Tawhid - the Oneness of Allah - and equality, defining a refreshing world view where no race is superior, except through piety.

Preserved by Divine Guarantee

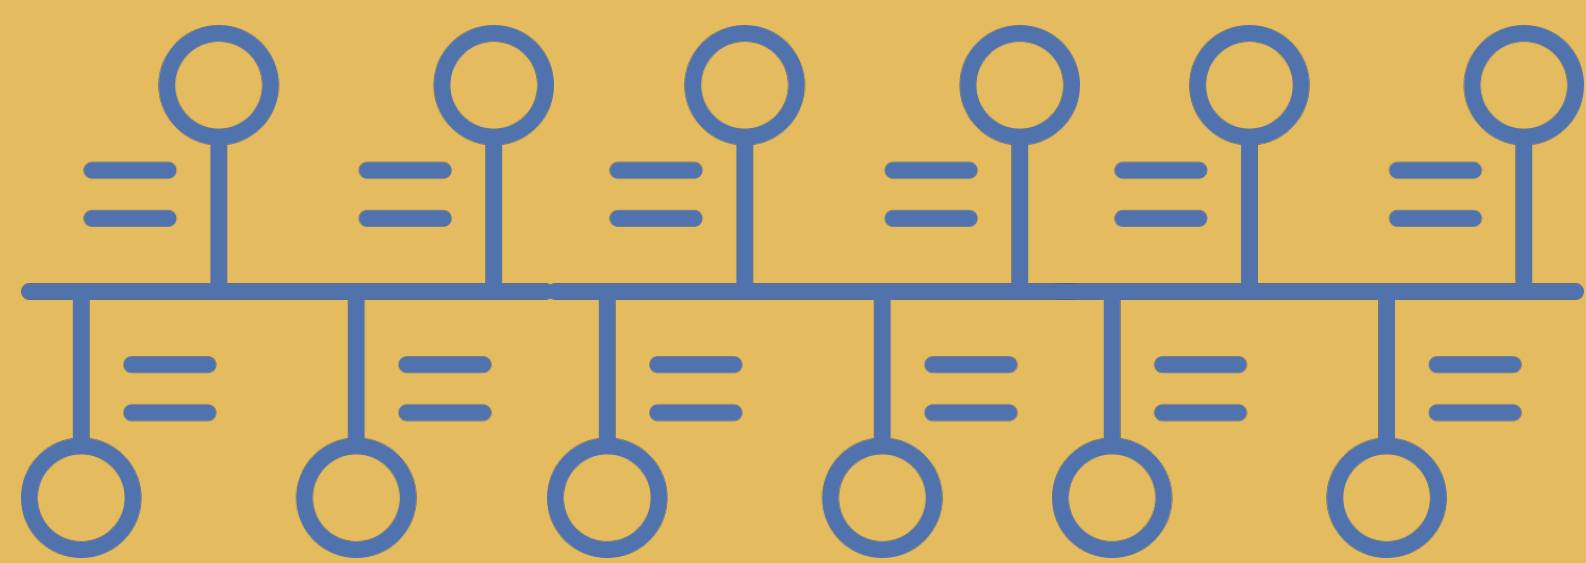

Unlike other scriptures, the Qur'an is protected from distortion through an unbroken, global tradition of oral memorisation.

The Qur'an: The Unchanged Divine Word

Chapters
4-6

An Unborken 23 Year Gradual Journey

Revealed in parts to strengthen the Prophet's heart and progressively educate the community.

Two Realms: The Unseen & The Witnessed

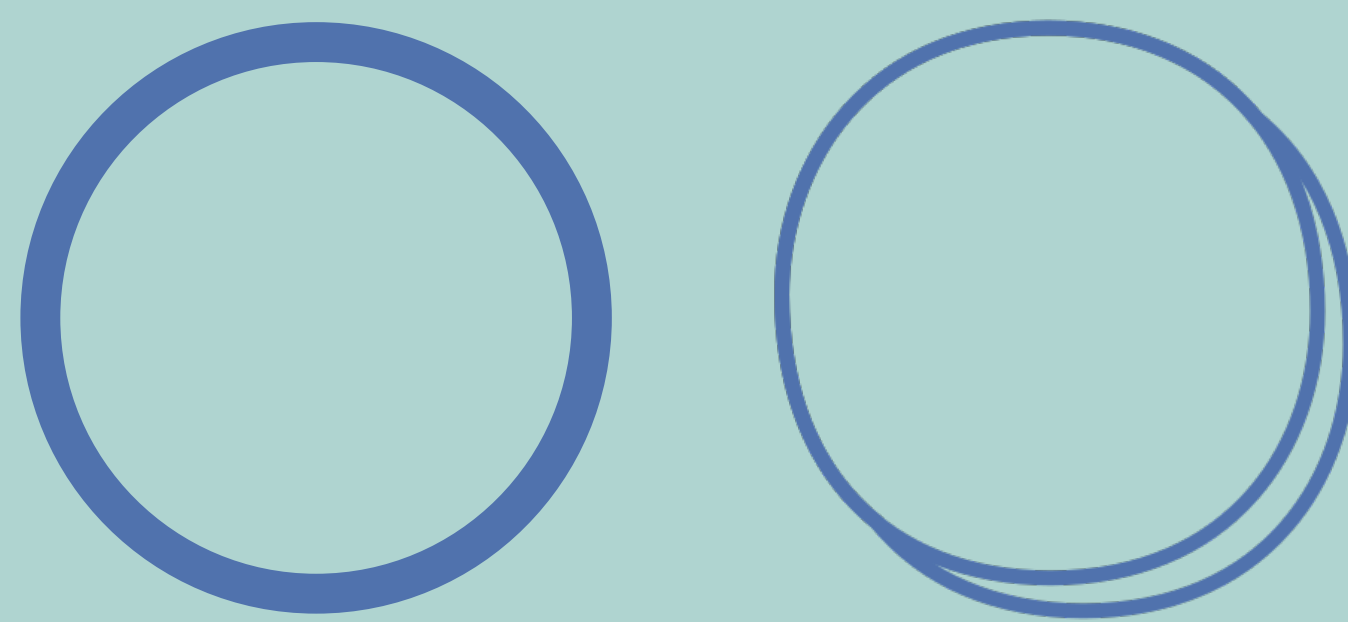

Revelation acts as the bridge between the Ghayb and Shahadah worlds.

Dual-Layer Preservation: Memory & Text

Guaranteed by God and protected through an uninterrupted global tradition of oral memorisation.

Inimitable Style vs. Human Effort

Its perfect consistency and scientific/historical accuracy remain unchallenged and impossible to replicate.
